

Angaasiichkaadaŋ Itux̄talix

Anġing

Anġing

Anġing

Anġing

Anġix̄ta<sup>ku</sup>qinga<sup>an</sup> waya

Qagnaning

Qagnaning

Qagnaning

Qagnaning

Qagnaŋ<sup>ta</sup>kuqinga<sup>an</sup> waya

Ulung

Ulung

Ulung

Ulung

Uluŋ<sup>ta</sup>kuqinga<sup>an</sup> waya

Imin ilga<sup>as</sup>adang

Imin uku<sup>us</sup>adang

Taġa nung tunuda

Iġamanan nung hida

Songs Story:

Words for this song can be found in Aleut Tales and Narratives. It is on page 686 and is titled “A Simple Love Song”. Unaaġim Aŋasniikangin visited with it and danced it for the first time at the 25th anniversary celebration of St.Paul Island Aleut Independence in August 2008 sharing that as long as we communicate kindly and with good intentions with one another in all the layers of community our relationships will remain true.