

“Îgadagaŝ!” Qanaligan Alix?

Everyone: “Îgadagaŝ!” Qanaligan alix? Qanaligan alix?

Îgadagaŝ: Wahligan akuqing. Wahligan akuqing.

Everyone: Alqutaltxin?

Îgadagaŝ: Îamnatutakuqing. Txin qaŝaasakuqing!
Txin qaŝaasakuqing!

Tune: Where is Thumper? With thumb & fingers.

Aquilina D. Lestenkof recalls the tune to this song and the names of all the children in the class being sung with her pre-first grade teacher as student roll call each morning.

For Îgadagaŝ you can use anyone’s name. Typically, the person who is Îgadagaŝ should be hiding then pop up after the last Qanaligan alix? Then they will sing Wahligan akuqing. It is basically a conversation, but you are sing it to each other.
